

The Sinclair Broadcast Group's efforts to monopolize media time in order to promote smear ads only contributes to the disillusionment of average citizens trying to weigh the election issues.

The Sinclair group should focus on encouraging individuals to vote and promoting the issues of importance to citizens and the country.

As a disseminator of multimedia communication, the Sinclair Group should be held responsible for their role in governing the kind of information presented to the public.

Thank you.